

REGIONAL INFORMATION AND ADVOCACY COUNCIL

SCHOLARSHIP/ APPRENTICESHIP SUPPORT FUND GUIDELINES

Introduction:

The Regional Information and Advocacy Council (RIAC) is a not for profit organisation operating in northern Victoria. It has offices in Bendigo, Mildura and Shepparton and provides the following services in its catchments area:

- Advocacy - Loddon Mallee, West Hume regions, Wentworth Shire and Balranald Shire;
- HACC Equity and Access services to Culturally and Linguistically Diverse communities in the west Hume; and
- HACC Training Co-ordination in the Hume region.

Mission Statement:

To encourage achievement and acceptance for all individuals irrespective of age, religion, culture or disability through the provision of quality support and service. To ensure an understanding of the life difficulties of all areas of disability.

Vision Statement:

Improving the lives of people by helping to build capacity and wellbeing of individuals, families, carers and communities.

Guidelines:

In accordance with its Vision Statement RIAC has implemented a Support Fund for secondary school students (aged from 15 years and upwards and/or year 10 or equivalent) and post secondary aged people with a disability to assist with the costs of their study/ apprenticeship. The Fund is for the allocation of up to a maximum of $5,000 in any one year. Mature age students are also eligible. RIAC may make a single allocation or divide the allocation between more than one applicant. The payment to successful applicant(s) will be made in 3 separate payments as follows:

Initial payment on enrolment/ commencement of apprenticeship/ study, determined by the scholarship amount allocated.

Progressive Payment made on presentation of satisfactory results at end of first semester

Completion Payment made on presentation of satisfactory results at end of year.

Failure to complete the course of study/ apprenticeship or failure to provide evidence of completion during the year will result in cancellation of the scholarship.

Eligibility:

People with a disability who are eligible to apply are those whose disability may be attributed to an intellectual, psychiatric, cognitive, neurological, sensory or physical impairment or a combination of impairments.

All applicants must reside in the RIAC Advocacy catchment, which consists of the following local government areas:

- Rural City of Mildura (Vic);
- Rural City of Swan Hill (Vic);
- Buloke Shire (Vic);
